

Submitter Institution: Birmingham-Southern College

Submitter Phone: 205-586-2955

Department: Political Science

Position Title: Visiting Lecturer of Political Science and Black Studies

Qualifications: Birmingham-Southern College seeks candidates with demonstrated excellence in teaching undergraduate courses for a Visiting Lecturer of Political Science and Black Studies position beginning August 2020. Candidates should hold a doctorate in Political Science or expect to complete their degree by August 2020. The College seeks exceptional individuals committed to the liberal arts, with a proven record of teaching excellence. The ideal candidate should be able to teach a broad range of political theory courses, including Introduction to Political Theory, teach Introduction to International Relations, and/or Introduction to Comparative Politics, and contribute to the interdisciplinary Black Studies program by teaching existing courses or courses in the candidate's expertise. The teaching load is 3-1-3, including an interim term in January. During January, professors offer unique, innovative, experiential, and/or travel courses.

Application Procedures: Review of applicants will begin immediately. Submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, statements of teaching philosophy, diversity, and research interests, and copies of graduate transcripts (unofficial), and three professional recommendation letters. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. Email dossier to pssearch@bsc.edu

Other Information: Birmingham-Southern College (BSC) is a selective residential liberal arts college enrolling approximately 1,300 undergraduate students. BSC is included in Pope's Colleges that Change Lives and is a sheltering institution for Phi Beta Kappa. The College's curriculum is based on close faculty-student interaction in teaching, advising, and research. For more on the College's faculty, students, educational mission, and national reputation. Visit www.bsc.edu. Birmingham-Southern College is located just minutes from downtown Birmingham, which is the largest city in Alabama and a leading hub for banking and medical care and research in the Southeast, and a vibrant center for entertainment, commerce, and recreational activities. There are six higher education institutions within a short commute; a symphony; a ballet; a zoo; botanical garden; the largest art museum in the Southeast; a world-class civil rights institute, an annual art, music, and film festivals – as well as numerous opportunities for outdoor adventure activities. In 2015, Birmingham was ranked as the #1 "next hot food city" by Zagat's. BSC is an equal opportunity employer and is especially interested in qualified candidates who can contribute through their teaching, research, and/or service to the diversity and excellence of the academic community. BSC is also committed to expanding the diversity of the faculty, staff, and the student body and in creating a welcoming and inclusive environment for all. Individuals from diverse populations are encouraged to apply. BSC complies with the Alabama Child Protection Act and E-Verify. EOE.

Application Deadline: April 1, 2020

Do not post after: April 30, 2020