

Submitter Institution: Georgia State University

Submitter Phone: (785) 331-6899

Department: College of Arts and Sciences

Position Title: Associate Dean

Institution is Seeking: The College of Arts and Sciences at Georgia State University seeks a dynamic leader to serve as the inaugural executive director of its new Center for Studies on Africa and its Diaspora (<https://csad.gsu.edu/>). Situated in the heart of Atlanta, one of the more diverse and global cities in the nation, Georgia State University is a public research-intensive university with a diverse student body of approximately 54,000 students and a national reputation for student learning, student success, and unparalleled growth of its research profile.

Qualifications: The Center for Studies on Africa and its Diaspora serves as a hub for fostering a dynamic exchange of cultural, scientific, economic, policy, and humanities knowledge between local communities, external partners, and researchers at Georgia State University, and aspires to become a leader and a catalyst for scholarly research, transdisciplinary initiatives, and national and international connections in the southeast and the nation as a whole.

Application Procedures: For detailed description of duties, please see <https://csad.gsu.edu>. To apply, a letter of intent, diversity statement, and CV/résumé should be submitted by October 08, 2021. For more information about this position, please visit or email csadsearch@gsu.edu. <https://csad.gsu.edu>

Application Deadline: October 8, 2021

Do not post after: October 8, 2021