

Submitter Institution: University of Denver

Submitter Phone: (720) 475-6795

Department: History

Position Title: Assistant Professor, History of Black Diaspora

Institution is Seeking: The History Department at the University of Denver invites applications for a full-time, tenure-track appointment in the history of the Black Diaspora in the Americas (1600-1800). The appointment for this position is intended to begin in September 2022. We are particularly interested in scholars whose research is engaged with the early Atlantic world. Although our department allows faculty to create course rosters focused on their teaching interests, we hope to attract applicants who are excited to teach courses in early North American history. We are also interested in qualified candidates who can contribute to diversity, equity and inclusion through their teaching, research, and service. This includes candidates from underrepresented groups, those who have experience working with diverse student populations, and those with experience and versatility in inclusive pedagogy.

Qualifications: Required Qualifications ABD, with a Ph.D. in History, Africana Studies, American Studies, or African American Studies, or other relevant discipline required by Summer 2022. Preferred Qualifications Ph.D. University teaching experience.

Application Procedures: Application Deadline For best consideration, please submit your application materials by 4:00 p.m. (MST) on Friday, October 8th, 2021. Special Instructions Candidates must apply online through jobs.du.edu to be considered. Only applications submitted online will be accepted.

Other Information:

Salary Range: The salary range for this position is $65,000-$80,000. The University of Denver has provided a compensation range that represents its good faith estimate of what the University may pay for the position at the time of posting. The University may ultimately pay more or less than the posted compensation range. The salary offered to the selected candidate will be determined based on factors such as the qualifications of the selected candidate, departmental budget availability, internal salary equity considerations, and available market information, but not based on a candidate's sex or any other protected status. Benefits: The University of Denver offers excellent benefits, including medical, dental, retirement, paid time off, tuition benefit and ECO pass. The University of Denver is a private institution that empowers students who want to make a difference. Learn more about the University of Denver. Please include the following documents with your application: 1. CV 2. Letter of Application 3. Writing Sample 4. Teaching Portfolio (statement of teaching philosophy, sample syllabi, and list of proposed courses) 5. Diversity Statement - Candidates can view DU's DEI Strategic Plan for the College of Arts and Humanities and Social Sciences here Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Strategic Plan for CAHSS \(du.edu\) 6. Letters of Recommendation. Please provide names and information of the three references. Letters of recommendation will be requested once your application is submitted. The University of Denver is committed to enhancing the diversity of its faculty and staff. We are an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment regardless of age, race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, military/ veteran status or any other status protected by law. All offers of employment are based upon satisfactory completion of a criminal history background check.

Application Deadline:

October 8, 2021

Do not post after:

October 11, 2021