

Posting Details

Job Title: Adjunct Faculty in Black Studies- Introduction to Black Studies

Rank: Adjunct Faculty

Tenure Information: Non-Tenure Track

Job Description:

The Providence College Black Studies Program invites applications for an adjunct instructor for Fall semester 2022. The instructor will teach two sections of Introduction to Black Studies (20 students each) that will meet in-person TR from 11:30-12:45 and MR from 10:00-11:15.

Education and Experience Required:

Advanced standing in Black Studies or a related discipline PhD program is required.

Close Date: 07/15/2022

Open Until Filled: Yes

Full consideration of application if received by: 07/15/2022

Instructions to candidates:

Applicants must apply on-line by July 15, 2022 and submit a cover letter, curriculum vitae, graduate transcript(s) and the names and e-mail addresses of three reference providers who can submit a letter of recommendation. Application instructions are available at: <https://careers.providence.edu/>

For further information, please call 401-865-2510, or email Professor Eric Hirsch at ehirsch@providence.edu.

College Information/EOE Statement:

Providence College is a Roman Catholic four-year liberal arts institution conducted under the auspices of the Dominican Friars and seeks candidates who can affirm and contribute to its mission. Providence College is committed to upholding an academic culture and campus community that attracts and supports the development of a diverse faculty reflecting the global environment in which we live and work. An AA/ EOE, the College especially encourages the applications of women and persons of color.

Founded in 1917, Providence College (PC) is a premier Catholic liberal arts institution steadfastly committed to academic excellence through a dynamic core curriculum, a distinctive Development of Western Civilization Program, and abundant experiential learning opportunities. The only U.S. higher education institution administered by the Dominican Friars, PC is committed to providing a variety of opportunities for intellectual, social, moral, and spiritual growth in a supportive environment. Providence College believes that cultural and intellectual pluralism is essential to the excellence of its academic programs, and strives to foster an academic culture and campus community reflecting the global environment in which we live and work.

The approximately 105-acre campus is situated in Rhode Island's capital city and is close to the many cultural and educational offerings of Rhode Island's "renaissance city." Additionally, Providence is located an hour from Boston and just a few hours from New York City.

For years, Providence College has been recognized in the U.S. News & World Report "Regional Universities – North Category" and has been commended by several other ranking publications.

Documents Needed To Apply

Required Documents

1. Cover Letter
2. Transcripts
3. Curriculum Vitae
4. Letters of Recommendation

Optional Documents

1. Optional Document